

Hollywood Shorties Here Tuesday

'Little People' To Meet Local Little League

North Torrance's Babe Ruth League will stage a side-splitting, rip-snorting ball game on Tuesday at 1 p.m. at Guenser Park, 178th and Gramercy, between the "Hollywood Shorties" and the League's 13-year-old players. The ball players of the Hollywood Shorties are composed of the "little people" of show business, including Little Oscar, Billy Barty of Spike Jones fame, and many other movie and TV personalities.

Al Welch, president of the North Torrance Babe Ruth League, said the exhibition ball game is guaranteed to set major league baseball back 50 years as the "Hollywood Shorties" combine their baseball skill with their comedy antics. "For a 4th of July full of laughs and fun, bring the family to the Hollywood Shorties ball game at Guenser Park," said Welch.

Little League Dedicates Harvey Field

Harvey Field, the newly formed Fre-Way Little League's newly constructed ballpark at 186th and Western was dedicated recently with a crowd of more than 300 in attendance.

Preceding a major-team double header played before a crowd of three hundred parents and a parkful of kids who wouldn't stand still to be counted, the ceremonies began with a flag-raising conducted by Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Explorers of Troop 315, 228, and 565X. Following, an invocation was pronounced by Rev. Walter Stanton, pastor of Central Evangelical United Brethren church.

THERE, ON the west diamond, to the accompaniment of sounds from a power filler still working on the east diamond, the acting mayor of Angeles and City Council President, John Gibson, who is also the area's councilman, accepted the field on behalf of the neighborhood.

The donor, Harvey Aluminum, was represented by the company's president, Leo Harvey, who symbolically tendered the use of the park to the new league and made a further contribution to its welfare in the form of a check presented to the league's president, John Garcia.

To commemorate the event, Mr. Harvey was in turn presented with a model of the field constructed by members of the league's Women's Auxiliary.

FORMALLY witnessing these exchanges were two distinguished visitors, the president of the Recreation Commission of the Los Angeles Department of Parks, Frodoe Kilstofte, and the president of the Los Angeles Harbor Commission, Lloyd A. Menveg.

Turner Doesn't Get Win Despite One Hit Effort

Hard luck Ken Turner hurled the South Torrance American Legion Post No. 170 to a 3 to 2, 13 inning marathon victory over El Segundo, firing a one-hitter and fanning 19 men in the process, only to have credit for the win given to Larry Thomas who pitched to only two batters.

Legion rules allow a boy to pitch only twelve innings. Because of this rule, Turner was relieved in the thirteenth by Chris Spellman, who in turn gave way to Thomas. Thomas was declared the winning hurler since the game winning run was scored while he was listed as pitcher.

Thomas did a creditable job in relief, coming in with two men on and only one out. He threw only six pitches, striking out both batters to face him.

IT WAS Turner's clutch single in the thirteenth frame that drove in Bob Wehrhan with the winning tally. Wehrman had tripled to open the inning.

South Torrance scored in the eighth on singles by Wehrman, Mike Andrews and a double by Joe Austin.

THE FOURTH frame produced another run when Andrews opened with a double, and was driven home by Austin's single.

El Segundo's runs came on a walk followed by a home run in the ninth inning.

COMING IN once again on relief, Thomas won his second game in a row as the Legion nine dumped Redondo 10 to 3. Thomas whiffed five men in relief of Spellman.

Two four-baggers, accounting for six runs in the fifth inning, gave South Torrance the margin of victory. Following singles by Larry Anderson and Gary Clements, Wehrman lofted one over the fence. An-

Gene Cook gave up one hit while striking out 14 and his teammates played errorless ball as the Tigers won this one to stay in a tie for first place with the Senators. Bill Bergeron was the losing pitcher in this heartbreaker in Tordondo Little League action.

The Senators kept pace with the Tigers by beating the Dodgers 8 to 1. In this game the younger Cowden, Don, gave up only one run to try to show big brother Dick that he is a pitcher, too. Mike Mahaffey's big bat accounted for a three-run home run.

THE CUBS came back to beat the Braves, 5-1. Mike White turned in this good pitching performance and hit a home run to dominate the game.

The winning battery of Bruce Read and Mike Menth gave the White Sox an 8-0 victory over the Dodgers; Bruce with his fine pitching performance and Mike with a home run.

MINOR LEAGUE DOINGS: The Phillies beat the Giants twice.

IN ANOTHER play-off the Orioles broke a 7-7 tie with an eight-run rally and then pitcher, Bill Barto, proceeded to strike out three Red Sox in a row to settle matters.

When it was announced that Lanny Weissman, the starting Oriole pitcher was home sick, Manager Al Pierson of the Red Sox, expressed his regret of the boy's illness, and his gladness that his boys didn't have to face Lanny.

Al is still shaking his head over the performance Bill Barto turned in when the chips were down. Neil Sorenson hit a triple to score the tie-breaking run and Danny Armstrong hit another long triple to account for three more runs.

Other results: The Stars beat the Angels, 11-9. The Pirates scuttled the Beavers, 28-5 with Bryan Rodman going the pitching distance for the Pirates.
